RIDE SEATTLE: a Short Documentary Filmed on Bike by Eric Shalit

As much as I love to ride bikes, I am equally fascinated with bike culture. A 4-day bike extravaganza called the Westside Invite was held in Seattle on Memorial Day weekend. You can still read previous posts and accompanying photo essays about the Westside Invite Bike Polo Competition.

I filmed some of the events with a 5-oz. digital GoPro Video Camera mounted on the handlebar of my Bianchi Axis. Below is a short film I made from footage of a group ride from Cool Guy Park on Capitol Hill to Anarchy Point in South Park on the Duwamish River.
