To offer their customers increased performance and insulation options, Kokatat introduces three NEW paddling gloves to round out our existing hand wear program. A summer weight, fingerless design for warm water and sun protection, a mid-weight neoprene glove for shoulder season paddling and a heavy weight neoprene glove for winter and other cold water paddling. Both neoprene models feature articulated fingers and a windproof outer layer for comfort and protection. All models have hook and loop adjustable neoprene wrist closures.

HAND JACKETS - HEAVYWEIGHT:

3mm Smoothskin neoprene upper with lightweight thermo lining, and 3mm "Neo Skin Mesh" urethane coated smooth skin palm for added durability.
